Visible Learning

To improve learning, for both teacher and student, educators must be willing to take the risk and invest their time meeting with other teachers reviewing student data, identifying strategies that have high impact and are within their capacity of influence. Learning is hard work for everyone in the school because - Knowing one's impact and acting on that impact requires humility, vulnerability, and commitment, even when we know the impact may not be immediate.

commitment to each student who walks into your door. We thank you for your open-mindedness with every opportunity to improve how we impact the hearts, minds and actions of every student. We thank you for continuously building caring relationships with our students and their families. We acknowledge how extremely challenging the calling can be for those who have committed themselves to this profession. No one is alone and together we are stronger. Nothing is impossible when we can stand side by side in unison marching to the beat of our student's dreams and aspirations. During this time of thanksgiving, we especially thank you your friends and family for their patience and understanding with all that you have committed yourselves to. They too deserve a big mahalo! Have a very special Thanksgiving with your friends and loved ones.

Safety Corner

1. Students are still not wearing their IDs and/or uniforms - speak with your homeroom and class periods of the importance identification & uniforms have on their safety.
2. Short weeks, such as last week, does not mean Ss can wear Team Shirts on Thurs.
3. Monitor Ss who leave the classroom. If you are requiring them to return during recess/lunch, you will need to provide them with a pass - we are seeing an increase in Ss wandering campus and/or accessing off limit areas; they will not be allowed to the classrooms without a pass

Other news...

- Framing Ilima's Learning: How well are students understanding the learning intention (purpose)?
- Students need to know what "Success Criteria" means. Can they explain this during your lesson delivery?
- 2nd Step Social-Emotional Learning Curriculum- This is not a supplement but rather the direct instructional material used by our school to address SEL. Administration will be conducting walkthroughs during advisory to obtain student feedback about their learning starting November 27, 2017.
- Got AMLE? The deadline to submit your interest is November 24, 2017.
- Teaching Lines- The deadline to email your ideas to be considered for positions you are qualified to teach for next school year is due November 22, 2017. Administration will consider this input when making changes to teaching lines for School-Year 2018-2019.

The Ilima After-school UPLINK

(Uniting Peer Learning, Integrating New Knowledge) Program is now in it's 8th year. Some of you may not know that The UPLINK program is funded by the Department of Health. The program's main focus is to provide tutoring for students .

Our UPLINK teachers are willing and able to help your students in Math, Social Studies, Science and English as well as giving students a choice to join the optional programs such as FilmANIMEtion, Beats Bars & More, Brain Games, Dance, Wrestling, Basketball, Archery and Track. The optional programs are an incentive for students to be involved in healthy activities and explore new experiences in a safe environment during those critical hours after school, 2:30 to 5:30 when they might be making socially unhealthy choices. Please encourage your students to take advantage of this free opportunity.
