

Every Other ILIMA'S ^ FRIDAY BULLETIN

TEAMWORK MAKES THE TEAM WORK

As we begin to pick up the pace in the 2nd quarter of this school year, let us all be reminded about the expectations involved with upholding a high standard of professionalism. Everyone's attention and follow through with the following expectations for professionalism are required as we move forward from this week.

Adhering to deadlines:

- Turn in CFA data on time.
- Be on time for meetings.
- Read calendar for scheduled meetings.

Growth Mindset-oriented Collaboration:

- Give feedback constructively and in a timely manner (solution-oriented).
- Be mindful of your verbal and non-verbal communication and their impact on others.
- Be positive in your intentions and presume positive intentions in others.

Mahalo for all those who helped to unpack and set up 528 Chromebooks and 16 Chromebook carts. A special mahalo goes out to Gayle Anbe, Cherise Akimoto, Clayton Asing, Leilani Baustista, James Belaski, Roberta Bontog, Gladys Carbonero, Marjorie Endrada, Maile Gatti, Sue Halmos, Erin Kato, Lilibeth Maramag, Cathy Sumida, Tammy Perry, Alex Teece, EJ Torres, Shirley Unebasami, Kane Rodrigues, and Keaka Rodrigues. Teamwork makes the team work!

Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success.

Henry Ford